Coach BOB SPOO and the Panthers celebrate the first of four Ohio Valley Conference championships back in 2001. The 2001 EIU squad swept the OVC winning all six league games. It was Eastern's first undefeated conference title since the 1983 Panthers won every game in the former Mid-Continent Conference. EIU added undefeated OVC records in 2005 and 2013 as the Panthers have won seven Ohio Valley Conference titles - 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2012, 2013...

2021 EIU ALUMNI AWARDS

Reginald Thedford Jr. '15, Outstanding Young Alumnus

Reginald Thedford Jr. joined Stand Up America, an organization focused on increasing voter participation in the United States, as their deputy political director in 2020. Prior to this he served as vice president of content with Politiscope, an innovative technology company formed to provide unbiased political information to its users, where he was responsible for shaping political content for dissemination. Reginald also was the CEO and founder of Law & Advocacy for Racial Justice in Madison and served as a legal intern for the Southern Center for Human Rights in Atlanta. A current New York City resident, he was very active as a student while at EIU, including serving as student body president.

Todd J. Vilardo '91, '96, 00, Distinguished Educator

With service in all three Coles County school communities as a teacher, coach, athletic director, assistant principal, principal and assistant superintendent, Todd J. Vilardo is currently responsible for leading Charleston CUSD #1 as its superintendent of schools. Influenced by the positive experiences he enjoyed while an EIU student, Todd continues to give back to EIU's extended school community through serving others. His contributions include board membership for Coles Together, Coles County ClassE, Coles County CASA, Eastern Illinois Area of Special Education, EIU College of Education and Professional Studies Advisory, Business Solutions Center at EIU Advisory, Lambda Chi Alpha Alumni Advisory, and the Charleston Area Chamber of Commerce.

Krupal Swami '95, Louis V. Hencken Alumni Service Award

An active supporter of EIU, Krupal Swami has served the university in a variety of ways since earning her degrees in business education and administrative information systems. Having held numerous leadership positions on the School of Business Advisory Board, she has been a member of the group since 2014. In addition to supporting the university from a philanthropic perspective, she has also utilized her influence in the technology industry to facilitate connections supporting the university's programs, students and faculty. The Bloomington resident formerly served as a director in State Farms' systems department before recently founding her own company, Team SWAMI, to provide technology consulting services.

2021 EIU ALUMNI AWARDS

Cheryl Fraker '85, '86, Distinguished Alumna

Cheri Fraker is an internationally-recognized speech pathologist who leads the pediatric feeding team at the Center for Selective Eating and Pediatric Feeding Disorders at Memorial Medical Center and also a member of the SIU School of Medicine-Koke Mill Medical Center Pediatric Swallowing Clinic in Springfield. Her innovative translations of research to evidence-based clinical practice have substantially altered professional practice in the field of speech language pathology and feeding and swallowing therapy. Her contributions to the field have led to better assessment and treatment approaches addressing swallowing disorders, nutritional deficiencies and underlying health issues experienced by children and adults around the world.

Dale Morrissey '76, '77, Distinguished Alumnus

Dale Morrissey dedicated his career to improving the lives of children and adults with developmental delays/disabilities, mental health issues and physical disabilities enabling them to live rich and meaningful lives. He retired from Developmental Services Center (DSC) in January 2021 after 41 years of service and was the chief executive officer for 33 years. Under his leadership the organization grew from serving 300 people annually to more than 1,100. In 2003-2004, Dale developed and implemented a plan for the creation of a developmental disabilities board in Champaign County. The voters overwhelmingly approved the plan resulting in increased funding of $4.5 million annually and expanded services to more than 800 individuals/families.

Jeff Rice '86, Distinguished Alumnus

Jeff Rice currently serves as chief financial officer for ABBM/Align Risk Solutions, a Nashville-based group utilizing their experience in law, insurance and accounting to assist clients with risk management needs. A certified public accountant with more than 30 years of experience in senior management positions, he has worked in a broad range of industries, including two startup tech companies, and was a Colonel in the U.S. Air Force/Illinois Air National Guard where he served 39 years until his retirement in 2020. During his military career, he deployed several times assisting during natural disasters including floods and hurricanes. Jeff also served overseas during three wartime deployments. A member of Delta Chi fraternity, he began his accounting career with KPMG

2021 EIU ALUMNI AWARDS

Eric Combs '05, '18 , Distinguished Educator

Eric Combs the Director of Bands at Richland County Middle School in Olney, was named the 2020 Illinois Teacher of the Year by the Illinois State Board of Education. Combs, who believes every student should have the opportunity to learn how to play an instrument, started a program that loans instruments to students at no cost to them. He has also developed a new system of differentiated and individualized music instruction in which every student in the band program can progress at his or her own pace. He also is the founder of banddirectorsshare.com, a free website that allows band directors to share materials, videos and short presentations in their area of expertise.

Randy Bailey '78, Distinguished Alumnus

Randy Bailey is the founder and chairman of First Health Advisory, a healthcare advisory firm which has been recognized as a national leader in connected asset risk management services. He also served as chairman, president and CEO of FreeLinc and was a founding board member of SpinGo, where he held the role of president, as well. Bailey has remained actively engaged with EIU as an alumnus, addressing the university's graduates as a commencement speaker, spending time in the classroom as an on-campus lecturer during Entrepreneurship Week and serving on the Lumpkin College of Business and Technology Dean's Task Force. The Phoenix resident and his family have also hosted numerous alumni gatherings in their home.

Melissa Conyears-Ervin '97, Distinguished Alumna

Melissa Conyears-Ervin is the current treasurer for the City of Chicago and a former state representative for the 10th District of Illinois. A finance graduate and proud member and past president of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority at EIU, Conyears-Ervin has more than 15 years of experience in the insurance industry. Elected treasurer in April 2019 for a term of four years, her responsibilities include managing and growing an $8 billion portfolio made up of a variety of securities and bonds, while one of her primary goals is to help increase development in underserved neighborhoods in Chicago. She also remains connected to her alma mater, where she served as commencement speaker for the fall 2019 ceremonies.

Judy Ethell '82, Distinguished Alumna

Judy Ethell founded J Ethell Consulting and serves as an operating consultant for privately owned, middle market companies. She previously held roles as chief financial officer and chief accounting officer for BearingPoint Inc., a $3.5 billion global management consulting and technology company, and partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, where she managed global tax relationships for several Fortune 500 companies. She was recognized in 2005 as the EIU Foundation's Outstanding Volunteer and is a past recipient of the Alumni Association's Louis V. Hencken Alumni Service Award. Highly competitive as an equestrian, Ethell has been awarded gold, silver and bronze medals by the U.S. Dressage Federation and the U.S. Equestrian Federation.

Tony Romo ex '03 , Distinguished Alumnus

One of the most decorated student-athletes in school history and the first EIU football player to have his number retired, Tony Romo was a record-setting quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys for 14 years before retiring from the sport following the 2016 season. A four-time Pro Bowl selection, his records for the Cowboys include passing yards, passing touchdowns, most games with 300 passing yards and games with three-plus touchdown passes. He also led his team to six playoff appearances while his 97.1 passer rating remains the fourth-highest all-time among retired quarterbacks. Tony has enjoyed significant success as a color commentator for CBS Sports, as well, including teaming with Jim Nantz to call Super Bowls in 2019 and 2021. Since beginning his career in the broadcast booth in 2017, he has received numerous accolades for his work, including multiple Emmy nominations and being named Media Person of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Samantha Sauer '11, '13 , Outstanding Young Alumnus

Samantha Sauer '11, '13 is the curator of the Paul Findley Congressional Office Museum, the archivist for the Khalaf Al Habtoor Archives, and an assistant professor of history at Illinois College. She serves as the first professional in institutional history to direct both the Archives and Museum, and also teaches courses as part of the public history program. Her background includes serving as a museum educator for the Museum of Discovery in Little Rock, AR, where she planned and implemented programs and connected the museum's natural and cultural history collections to hands-on STEM exhibits. Since graduating Eastern, Sauer's interdisciplinary work and research have been recognized for innovation and best practices by organizations including the Illinois Association of Museums, the Interfaith Youth Core, and the American Alliance of Museums. While at EIU, she studied history, film, and historical administration.
